MASSACHUSETTS

THEODUS JORDAN /PLAINTIFF

Civil Action No.
04-CV-10688NMG

VS.

BOSTON PUBLIC SCHOOLS /DEFENDANTS

MOTION TO DELAY PRODUCTION OF ALL DOCUMENTS FOR ANOTHER
40 DAYS DUE TO HARDSHIP AND INDIGENT STATUS FOR COPYING, DUPLICATION, DUE TO REPRODUCTION COST:

NOW, comes the plaintiff in pursuit of justice in the above matter to ask your Honorable High Court for another delay in the production of documents for the defendants because of lack of necessary funds to pay for the reproduction of all the documents (which are many) for the defendants, due to hardship, indigent status, and destitution, caused by this defendants wrongful termination, retaliation, discrimination based on my color, race, gender and age. It is my hope that this time will allow this plaintiff to raise the necessary funds through substitute teaching to afford these reproductions of all documents and forward these to the defendants' attorneys all necessary documentations. Plaintiff believes that he will have enough funds by then for this cost and to retain a lawyer by then.

Wherefore, plaintiff pleads with your High Court, to grant this another time delay until such time as he can raise these necessary funds.
